

WHERE DID YOU GET THAT HAT?

JOSEPH J. SULLIVAN

Moderately

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of two systems. The first system has a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line starts with the lyrics: "Where did you get that hat? Where did you get that tile? Is-n't it a nob-by one, and just the prop-er style;". The piano accompaniment features a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The second system continues the vocal line with the lyrics: "I should like to have one, just the same as that! Wher - e'er I go they shout, 'Hel-lo, where did you get that hat?'. The piano accompaniment continues with similar melodic and harmonic patterns. The score includes dynamic markings like 'mf' and 'c' (crescendo).

Now how I came to get this hat, 'tis very strange and funny Grandfather died and left to me his property and money
And when the will it was read out, they told me straight and flat If I would have his money, I must always wear his hat
CHORUS

If I go to the op'ra house, in the op'ra season
There's someone sure to shout at me without the slightest reason If I go to a concert hall to have a jolly spree There's someone in the party who is sure to shout at me
CHORUS

At twenty-one I thought I would to my sweetheart get married
The people in the neighbourhood had said too long we'd tarried So off to church we went right quick, determined to get wed I had not long been in there, when the parson to me said
CHORUS

I once tried hard to be M.P. but failed to get elected Upon a tub I stood, round which a thousand folks collected
And I had dodged the eggs and bricks (which was no easy task)
When one man cried, "A question I the candidate would ask!"
CHORUS

When Colonel South, the millionaire, gave his last garden party I was amongst the guests who had a welcome true and hearty
The Prince of Wales was also there, and my heart jumped with glee When I was told the Prince would like to have a word with me
CHORUS

— Where do you get that wash? (509.01)
